Dear Mr. Tey Kim Heng

RE : ISO22000:2005 Certificates

Congratulations to your organisation on gaining certification to the ISO22000:2005 Standard. We take great pleasure in enclosing two sets of your certificate of approval for the relevant accreditation scheme (if applicable).

We would like to inform that the wordings in the UKAS accreditation mark have changed:

Your certificate will include the new accreditation mark and you will need to start to use the new joined mark(s). In addition, the timeline for you to update all relevant printing materials is before the end of December 2013.

Kindly arrange to have any previous copies of the certificate destroyed, or if retained clearly marked "superseded as of 18 October 2013". Please also find the logo and the procedures governing their use. These mark(s) can be used on a wide range of promotional products to help publicise your company's approval.

Please feel free to contact us should you have any queries regarding your certificate.

Thank you and best regards.

Yours sincerely,
